CAR AND WAGON COLLIDE. KILLING TWO NEGROES.

Edward James and William Nixon Are Crushed by Lumber Dray.

In the collision of a southbound Grand wenue car, to which were attached three traliers, and a lumber wagon belonging to the Al Schnitker Lumber Company of No. 4338 Manchester avenue, William Nix-on, the negro driver, of No. 4123 Papin street, and Edward James, a negro boy, living at No. 4141 Papin street, were

James's left leg was cut off, and he sus-tained a deep gash over his left eye, besides minor cuts and bruises about the Both of Nixon's arms were broken, and he sustained cuts and bruises about the He died from the effects of his injuries at 10 o'c.ock last night. James died at 2 o'clock this morning.

According to the story of Raymond Ollver, a newsboy, 12 years old, who saw the accident, the car at the time was running at a high rate of speed. The wagon driven by Nixon had just turned out of Lawton avenue into Grand, and Nixon attempted to cross to the west side of Grand avenue in front of the car.

The car struck the fore part of the wagon, which was heavily loaded with lumber, Nixon was thrown from his seat and fell to one side. Several pieces of lumber fell across his body. James fell between the wagon and the car, the wheels of which passed over his left leg, severing it. They were hurried to the City Hospital, All of the cars were empty, as they were being taken to the car shed.

The collision occurred yesterdaya afternoon. He died from the effects of his injuries

FIRM OF BARRY & BARRY.

ATTACHMENT SUIT AGAINST

The Fourth National Bank of St. Louis resterday filed an attachment suit for $1.912.55 against John Barry, William Barry and Alfred Pennington, who did a commission business until recently at No. 902 North Third street under the firm name of Barry & Barry.

name of Barry & Barry.

Notice of dissolution was published about October 30 last, and the firm ceased operations owing, it is said, about $5,000, mostly to producers in the Shuth and West.

The suit filed yesterday is based upon a note for $1,000 executed September 5, 1905, and one for $500 executed March 30 last. The $1,000 note bears 7 per cent interest and the other 8 per cent.

Thomas B. Kliculien, chief of the execution department of the Sheriff's office, levied upon the interest of the Barrys in three pieces of real estate.

John Barry is William Barry's father, and both live at No. 1417 Sarsheld place.

The property levied upon consists of lots at Twentieth and Mullamphy streets, fronting 44 feet on Mullamphy street by 130 feet on Twentieth street, held in the names of John and Ellen Barry: 100 feet on Sacramento avenue near Turner avenue, held in the name of John and William Barry, and 50 feet on Sacramento avenue near Turner avenue, held in the name of William Barry.

The firm was organized about eighteen months ago and was not a large concern.

man Ambassador, that a treaty of arbitration between the United States and Germany would, in his judgment, be very desirable.

Ambassador Sternburg coincided with this view and told the President that he would inquire of his Government what sieps, if any, it desired to take in the matter.

Late this afternoon Ambassador Sternburg called upon President Roosevelt and informed him that the German Government had expressed liself as entirely agreeable to the President's proposition, and that he had been directed to open forman language and negotiations for such a treaty.

These negotiations will be conducted by Ambassador Sternburg on the part of the saloon unconsclousness again the United States.

PAZEN HELD TO GRAND JURY. Washington, Nov. 4.—First Lieutenant Evan H. Humphrey, Seventh Cavalry, son of Quartermaster General Humphrey, Must Answer Two Charges of Attempting to Assault Girls. pital. Washington Barracks, for observa-tion and treatment. He is suffering from a badly strained knee, the result of active participation in a football game at Fort Myer a few days ago. Lieutenant Humphrey's knee was se-verely wrenched in a scrimmage on the field, and notwithstanding the treatment received at the rest has gradually become worse, and it was deemed wise to give him a spell of enforced rest in the hos-pital.

Joseph Pazen, who is accused of at-12 years of age, had a preliminary hear-ing in the Court of Criminal Correction yesterday. Judge Moore ordered the pris-oner held for the Grand Jury, with two oner held for the Grand Jury, with two charges against him, and set the bond in each case at $5,000.

The feeling of the court in the matter is thought to be expressed by his action in asking a bond of $16,000 for the safety of the accused man.

An aunt of one of the girls, who appeared as a prosecuting witness against Pazen, created a scene in the courtroom by demanding that she be allowed to remain within the railing. Deputy Sheriff J. Eddie Noonan was compelled to resort to force to get the objecting aunt out of the room.

WONG JU'S CASE ON TRIAL.

Chinaman Was Arrested Last July and Held for Deportation.

Wong Ju, alias Charlie Joe, a Chinaman who was arrested in St. Louis last July on a charge of the violation of the Chinese exclusion act, and held for deportation, was on trial yesterday before United Statet Commissioner Babbitt. The de-Statet Commissioner Babbitt. The defendant stated through an interpreter that he was an America-born Chinaman.

He testified that at the age of 5 he went from San Francisco to China and stayed two years. After his return to SanFrancisco he remained in this country eight years, then went to China for a year, and had been in America ever since. The testimony was taken through Interpreter Frank H. Tape. At the close of the testimony the decision was withheld for confirmation of defendant's testaments and those of her witnesses.
